

Snelling Voluntary Service Bursary

2009 Applications

As a result of a generous bequest by the late Irene Snelling the Oxted United Reformed Church is able to offer a Voluntary Service Travel Bursary.

Applications are invited from young people between the ages of 17 and 24 who are taking part in a voluntary service project in the U.K. or abroad in 2009.

Students should be living within the Tandridge area or attend Oxted School.

Applications must be supported by a reference from a Head Teacher, College Principal, minister of religion or other person of similar standing with close knowledge of, but unrelated to the applicant.

Applicants should submit:

- a detailed plan of their projected travel.
- details of whether the applicant intends to travel independently or under the auspices of an organisation, (details of which should be provided.)
- the objectives and length of the proposed involvement in the project.
- the estimated costs involved, with an approximate breakdown between travel, residential and other costs and an indication of how the student intends to raise the funds required.

Applications should be made in writing to:

Mrs L. A. Mitchell
The Snelling Legacy Fund,
Oxted United Reformed Church,
21 Bluehouse Lane,

Oxted, RH8 OAA.

Applications should reach the Snelling Legacy Fund by 29th February 2009.

Interviews will be held before 14th March 2009.

Recipients of the bursary will be required to submit a short account of their project (about 1,000 words) from which extracts may be published in the church newsletter.
